DEFENDANT CORRECTIONAL MEDICAL SERVICES, INC.'S
MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO RESPOND TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

COMES NOW, Defendant, Correctional Medical Services (hereinafter CMS), by and through its' undersigned attorney to hereby move pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 and D. Del. L.R. 16.4 for an extension of time within which to respond to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories and in support thereof states as follows:

1. Plaintiff filed the First Set of Interrogatories on April 29, 2008 (DI 53). The DI number was later changed to DI 61 after notification to the Clerk's office from the undersigned that the Interrogatories appear to have been mistakenly docketed as an attachment to another pleading.
2. Responses to said Interrogatories are due on or about May 29, 2008.
3. The undersigned recently learned that the contact person at CMS who will be assisting with the responses was out of town and has not had sufficient time to review the Interrogatories.
4. On May 22, 2008, the undersigned sent a letter to Plaintiff requesting a 30 day extension to respond to the interrogatories (See Exhibit "A" attached hereto). However, due to the intervening holiday, it is possible that Plaintiff has not had sufficient time to consider CMS's request. Consequently, this motion is being filed to request a 30 day extension to file the responses to said interrogatories.

5. No prejudice will result to Plaintiff as there is no scheduling order in place and the matter is not set for trial.

WHEREFORE, Correctional Medical Services respectfully requests that a 30 day extension be granted to respond to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories by June 28, 2008.

Re: William Francis v. Thomas Carroll, et al.
C.A. No. 07-015 JJF
Our File No. 431-79493

Dear Mr. Francis:

Our office is in the process of preparing responses to the Interrogatories you served in the above matter.

We are writing to request an additional 30 day extension on the submission of the responses, as I have just learned that the person with whom we need to obtain the responses is unavailable until May 27, 2008. This does not give us sufficient time to finalize the responses by May 28, 2008.

If you agree to this request, please sign a below and return a copy of your consent to our office in the self addressed stamped envelope below.

If you are able to call me on May 27, 2008, to let me know you consent to that request, that would be helpful.

If I don't hear from you by 4:00 p.m. on May 27, 2008 I will have to file a motion for extension of time with the court.
